

Churches Helping Churches Help

A Response to the Humanitarian Crisis in Ukraine

In cooperation with:

DOBRO CZYNIĆ MISJA

Who are we?

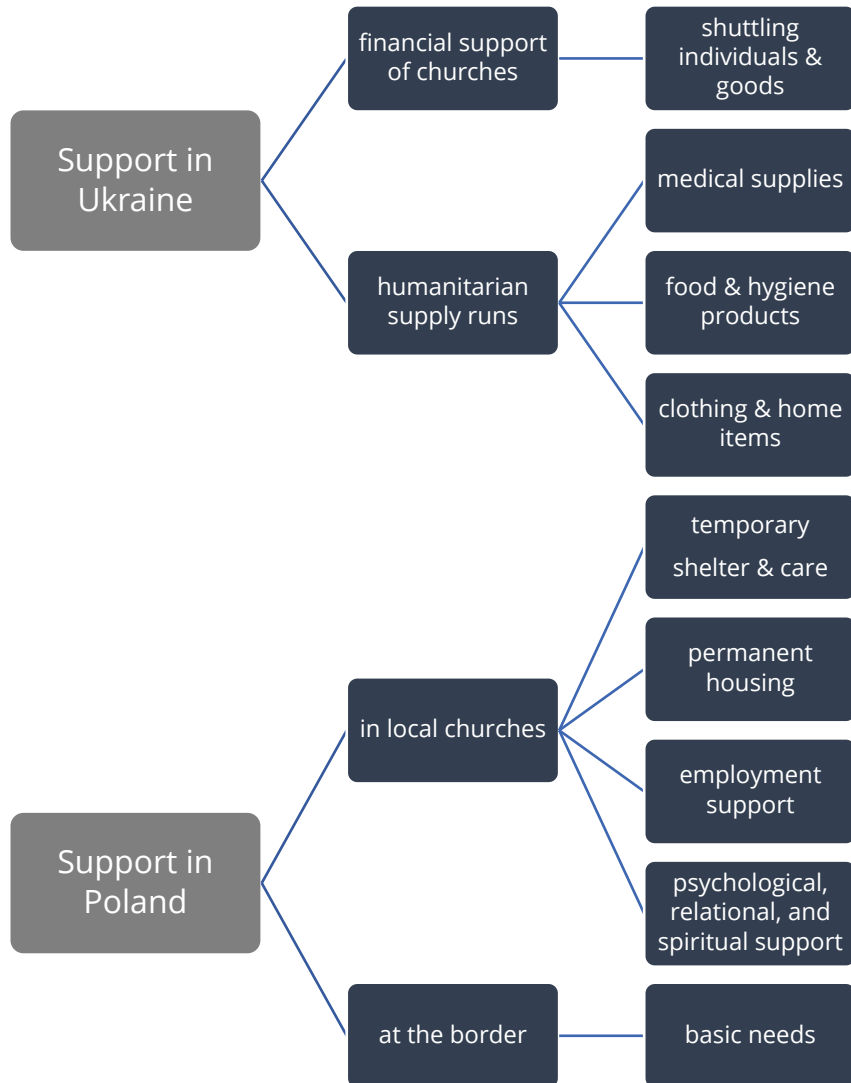

The Quo Vadis Institute is a European non-profit whose mission it is to inspire and connect thought leaders to rethink and shape the future of Europe.

Kościół Wolnych Chrześcijan Palowice is an Evangelical church, which has become a hub for helping Ukraine and Ukrainians in southern Poland.

Since 2006, the "Good Works" Charity Mission operates as an agency of the Evangelical church in Poland and is one of the few Polish church NGOs with the status of a Public Benefit Organization.

Support of Ukr. Churches	USD
Per month	30,000
TOTAL / 3 months	90,000

1 Van	USD
food & medical supplies	4,000
extra needs for babies	200
fuel for trip	400
fuel for Ukraine	400
TOTAL	5,000

Care of 200 Refugees	USD
Per person / day	10
TOTAL / month	60,000

Border Help	USD
TOTAL	10,000

Strategy & Costs

Aid to Ukraine
4 vans a week
(for 10 weeks)
= 200,000 USD

Refugees in Poland
(for 3 months)
(+ 10% contingency)
= 200,000 USD

Financial assistance
(border aid, Ukr. churches)
= 100,000 USD

This project is scalable, enjoys local ownership, expertise, and credibility,
supports organic, bottom-up initiatives,
is executed by volunteers (no staff costs),
and is connected to reputational partners in the USA
(such as National Christian Foundation, TrustBridge).

Raised since 26 February: over 500,000 USD

How can you help?

If you have an NCF Giving Fund – execute a fund-to-fund transfer to The NCFO Ukraine Rapid Assistance Fund #4121859.