

QUO VADIS INSTITUTE

INSPIRE. CONNECT. RETHINK.

LIBRARY

INTRODUCTION

DEAR VISITOR, RESEARCHER, AND READER,

We are delighted that you're visiting our library! To help you find your way around, the following pages provide an overview of our collection. Here, you will discover a wide range of Christian literature on diverse topics, theological reference works, language and historical studies, as well as philosophical texts, scientific overviews, magazines, canonical literature, and (auto-)biographies.

Our library, located in the basement, is divided into five rooms. Below, you'll find a floor plan showing the layout of these rooms. On the subsequent pages, you'll find a detailed index for each room.

We hope you enjoy your search, find what you're looking for, and gain inspiration through your reading and exploration!

BEST REGARDS, THE QUO VADIS TEAM

R O O M I .

BIBLE STUDY, HISTORY, COMMENTARY

In Room I, you will find commentaries on both the Old and New Testament, as well as on all individual books of the Bible. Additionally, you will discover various editions of the Bible. The room also houses historical, hermeneutical, and sociological studies related to both the Old and New Testaments.

Our books are organized by subject areas, with each topic assigned to numbered shelves. Below, you will find a list of the shelves and their respective subjects. The labeling and numbering can be found directly on the shelves for easy reference.

I (1-6): OT Texts, Translations, Introduction

I (7-8): OT Theological and Historical Studies

I (9-10): OT Historical and Language Studies

I (11-22) OT Commentary on individual Books

I (23-35) NT Commentary on individual Books

I (35-36): NT Paul and Pauls Life

I (37-39): NT Introductions

I 40: NT Theology; Commentary

I 41: NT Commentary; Critical Studies

I 42: NT Critical Studies; Interpretation

I 43: NT Parables; Sermon of the Mount; Gospels; Synoptic Problem

I 44: NT Apocrypha; Morality; Gnosis; Language Studies

I 45: NT Language Studies; History

I 46: NT History; Judaism and Christianity

I (47-48): NT Early Church; Characters; Sociology

ROOM II.

BIBLE COMMENTARY (SERIES)

In Room II, you will find collections of Bible commentary series. Attached, you will find a list of the available series titles.

- II 1: Keil and Delitzsch - Commentaries on the Old Testament
- II 2: Encyclopedia Britannica
- II 3: C. H. Spurgeon - The Treasures of David; Ancient Christian Commentary on Scripture
- II 4: Zondervan Illustrated Bible Backgrounds Commentary
- II 5: Classic Commentary Library; Pseudepigrapha
- II 6: C.J. Ellicott - Old Testament Commentary; Critical Doctrinal and Homiletical Commentary
- II (7-8): Word Biblical Commentary
- II 9: Keil and Delitzsch - Commentaries on the Old Testament
- II 10: The Anchor Bible
- II 11: New International Dictionary of OT Exegesis; Dictionaries NT
- II 12: Tyndale New Testament Commentaries; The Book of Acts
- II 13: The Interpreters Dictionary of the Bible
- II (14-15): Commentaries OT; Minor Prophets
- II 16: New International Commentary on the NT; Exegetical Dictionary of the NT
- II 17: Lange, Schaff - Commentary on the Holy Scriptures; Theological Lexicon of the NT
- II 18: Barclay - Commentary NT; Zondervan Pictorial Encyclopedia of the Bible
- II 19: The IVP NT Commentary Series; The Sermon Bible
- II 20: New International Biblical Commentary
- II 21: Die Bibel und ihre Welt; Theological Dictionary of the OT
- II 22: The Anchor Bible Dictionary; The International Standard Bible Encyclopedia
- II (23-25): The International Critical Commentary
- II 25: Dictionary of NT Theology
- II 26: Theological Dictionary of the NT
- II 27: Interpretation
- II 28: A Commentary on NT from Talmud and Hebraica; The Word Study Concordance
- II 29: F. E. Gaebelin - The Expositors Bible Commentary
- II 30: Hermeneia; Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon; Matthew Poole - Commentary on the Holy Bible

R O O M I I I .

CHRIST.,SYSTEM. THEOLOGY, MAGAZIN

In Room III, you'll find foundational works on Christology, as well as volumes on Systematic Theology, including Karl Barth's Church Dogmatics series and a collected edition of John Owen's works. Additionally, this room houses large-format art books and Bible atlases.

Also featured here are books published by the Quo Vadis Institute in larger quantities, as well as other titles available for purchase in bulk. Lastly, Room III contains our magazine collection.

Below is a listing of the magazines and journals available for your perusal:

MAGAZINES:

- Offene Türen
- KCF Magazin
- Allianzspiegel
- IDEA
- Pflug
- Anders Leben
- smd Transparent
- First Things
- The Economist
- Tygodnik Powszechny
- Polityka

JOURNALS:

- Die Furche
- Evangelicals Now (en)
- IWM Post

SCIENTIFIC JOURNALS:

- Analecta Biblica
- Evangelical Review of Theology
- Interpretation
- Journal o.t. Evangelical Theological Society
- Studies in Biblical Theology
- The Emmaus Journal
- The Evangelical Quarterly

R O O M I V .

HALL OF PRACTICAL ISSUES

In our corridor section, you'll find foundational works on practical topics, as well as comprehensive overviews on natural sciences, including our apologetics collection. The practical topics begin with mission, evangelism, and ministry, extending to societal and cultural aspects. Further along, you'll encounter resources on leadership, mentoring, and work, including theology of work. In the last quarter of the corridor, you'll discover themes related to Christian living, from spiritual growth to friendship, suffering, pain, marriage, psychology, and more.

Below, you'll find a listing of the key thematic areas along with the corresponding shelves where they are located:

IV 1: Mission Basics and Foundations

IV 2: Mission and Church; Mission in Margins; Mission and Sending

IV 3: Mission Reports; Reports Asia

IV 4: Reports America, Africa, Europe; Evangelism; Evangelism and Local Church

IV 5: Evangelism; Lifestyle; Arguing and Apologetics; Evangelism and University

IV 6: Evangelism; Ministry - Basics and International Perspective

IV (7-8): Theological Anthropology

IV (8-9): Character Values; Mentoring

IV (9-11): Leadership

IV (11-13): Work and Theology of Work

IV (14-18): Society; Sociology; Cultural Studies

IV 19: Europe - USA

IV (20-22): Arts

IV (23-24): Business; Business Ethics

IV 25: Education

IV 26: Law; Media

IV 27: Healthcare and Medicine

IV (28-29): Government; Politics; Political Theory

IV (31-32) Christian Life – Early Christian Life

IV (33-34) Christian Life – Spiritual Growth

IV 35: Christian Life – Discipleship; Spiritual Renewing

IV 36: Christian Life – Living Together, Love; Outreach; Friendship

IV 37: Christian Life – Time with God; Prayer; Gods Leading; Solitude

IV 38: Christian Life – Pain and Healing

IV 39: Christian Life – Family; Gender

IV 40: Christian Life – Sexuality; Christians in Modern Society

IV 41: Christian Life – Psychology; Counseling; Sin

IV 42: Christian Life – Theology and Daily Life

R O O M V .

THEOLOGY, LINGUISTICS, LIT, HISTORY

In Room V, you'll find in-depth theological, historical, and hermeneutical studies. Several topics that are practically addressed in Room IV, such as gender studies, are given a theoretical foundation here. Additionally, this room offers a comprehensive overview of church and denominational history, alongside general historical works.

You will also discover foundational texts on Greek, Hebrew, and Aramaic, as well as resources on rhetoric and homiletics. Room V further houses our collections of literary works and (auto-) biographies.

Below is a detailed listing of the thematic areas and the corresponding shelves where they are organized:

V 1: Literature – Theoretical Works; Theory of Literature

V (2-5): Literature – Classics

V 6: Literature – Popular Literature; Thriller

V 7: Literature – Fantasy; Poetry

V (8-9): Literature – Christian Literature

V (9-12): Literature – German Literature

V (13-18): Greek, Hebrew, Aramaic – Grammar and Lexica

V (19-30): Old Testament Studies, Surveys, History and Interpretation

V 31: Jewish Christianity; Jewish Faith and Christianity

V 33: Israel Today; Judaism

V (34-43): Denominations

V 34: Denominations Overview; Catholic Church

V 35: Protestant Church

V 36: Orthodox; Calvinism; Baptism; Reformed Church

V 37: Angelicals; Brethren

V (38-40): Evangelicals

V 41: Charismatic Movement

V 42: New Movements; Ecumenical Movement

V 43: Dialogue; Church and Nations

V 44: Ancient Faiths; Cults

V 45: Esotericism; Interconfessional Dialogue

V (45-49): World Religions

V 47: Buddhism; Hinduism

V (48-49): Islam

V (50-52): Homiletics; Rhetoric

V (52-54): Bible Study Guides

V (54-55): Hymn Books

V 56: Church in History – Development

V 57: Church in History – On the Margins

V 58: Church in History – Church Structures

V 59: Church Management; Baptism; Lord's Supper

V 60: Kingdom of God

V 61: Eschatology

V (62-63): Prayer

V (63-64): Spirituality

V 64: Pneumatology

V 65: Bible Studies – Holy Spirit, Spirituality

V 66: Spiritual Gifts

V 67: Healing

V 68: Philosophy and Religion; Philosophy of History

V (69-71): Ethics

V 72: Studies on Religion

V 73: Feminism and Gender Studies

V 74: Theological Studies on Grace, Holiness and Sin

V 75: Worship; Liturgy

V (76-80): Schaff and Wace – Nicene Fathers

V 81: Schaff – History of the Christian Church

V (82-83): Biblical Archaeology

V 84: History – Near East, Prehistoric Egypt, Persia

V 85: Archaeology and the New Testament

V (86-89): History

V 86: Greek Antiquity

V 87: Roman Antiquity

V 88: 10-20th Century

V 89: 21st Century

V 90A: Historical Reliability; Historic Criticism

V (90B-93): Patristics; Early Church

V 93: Biblical Characters; Sources and Quotes

V (94-99): Church History

V (94-95): History of Theology

V 96: Medieval

V (97-99): Reformation; Post-Reformation

V (100-105): Science

V (106-107): Creation and Evolution

V (108-109): Apologetics; Introduction

V 110: Apologetics; Religions

V (111-112): Apologetics; Postmodernism

V (108-111): Systematic Theology

V (112-113): Historic Criticism and Theology

V 113: Apologetics; Communism

V 114: Apologetics; Philosophy; Worldview

V (118-127): Hermeneutics

V (118-120): Hermeneutics, Introduction

V (120-121): Literature, Linguistics,
Translation

V 121: Canon

V (122-124): Hermeneutics Old Testament

V (124-127): Hermeneutics New Testament

V (128-129): Philosophy

V (130-135): Doctrine

V (136-138): Systematic Theology

V 139: New Theology; Pastoral Theology

V 140: Revelation; Nature of Revelation

V 141: Soteriology

V (142-143): Demonology; Spirits

V 143: Suffering and the Goodness of God

V 144: C.S. Lewis; Spurgeon

V 145: Francis A. Schaeffer

V (145-153): (Auto-) Biographies

RESEARCH AND RULES

We are delighted that you are conducting research in our library! Below are some helpful details to guide you as you work and explore our collection:

WORKSPACES

You will find designated workspaces for your research in Room I and Room III, each equipped with power outlets to support your devices.

ORIENTATION

We hope this booklet will assist you in navigating the library. All thematic areas and the corresponding shelves are listed for your convenience. Each section and its shelf numbers are also clearly labeled on the shelves themselves. If you have trouble locating something, feel free to ask a member of the Quo Vadis team, should someone be available in the office.

RESEARCH

You have full access to all books, magazines, and journals in the library.

We kindly ask that you return any materials to the same location where you found them. If you're unsure of the exact spot, please ensure the book is returned to the correct thematic area.

BORROWING

At this time, borrowing books from the library is unfortunately not possible. All materials must be used on-site.

For further inquiries, please contact the Quo Vadis team.

WE HOPE YOU HAVE A PRODUCTIVE AND ENRICHING EXPERIENCE
WITH OUR LIBRARY, AND THAT YOUR RESEARCH USING OUR BOOKS
PROVES FRUITFUL FOR BOTH YOUR WORK AND YOUR THINKING!

